- Cinnamon can also be used to add some sweetness without the extra sugar.
Frequently asked questions

- Does it matter what type of bread I use?
  - No, you can use whatever kind of bread you like. We suggest whole wheat bread because it is not missing any of the nutrients that white bread is missing.

- Can we use frozen fruits?
  - Yes, just let them thaw beforehand. Frozen fruit is just as good as fresh fruit; it still has all the same vitamins and antioxidants.

- What if I don’t have any fruit?
  - You can use any fruit you like to top off the French toast, or just top it off with some cinnamon or jam. It is all up to your personal preference; the options are endless!

- Is there anything I can use instead of vanilla?
  - The Vanilla is just to add flavor, you can use some cinnamon or even some of the zest from the peel of an orange or lemon.
