11. Director of Personnel Items/Report of Closed Session Actions:

    Ms. Krebs reported the following:

    - There were four items heard in Closed Session during the Regular Meeting held on December 8, 2014. The reportable actions taken on these items are listed in the public minutes of that meeting.

    - Your Commission welcomes a new Commissioner this evening: Mr. M. Bryan Burrow. Mr. Burrow is filling the remainder of Commissioner Jeffrey Thorn’s term which will end on July 9th 2017.

    - We have one Commissioner’s term that will be expiring this year: Commissioner Jackie Parli’s existing term will end on July 9, 2015. Commissioner Parli was appointed for Supervisory District 2 by Supervisor Zack Scrivner.

    - We welcomed a new employee to the Personnel Department today: Fiscal Support Specialist Christina Griepsma came to us as a promotion from the Mental Health Department. Christina is assigned to our unit of Fiscal Support Specialist which are collectively responsible for processing Notices of Employment; personnel status changes; maintenance of the salary ordinances and position control, payroll corrections; out-of-class pay; catastrophic leave; certification of eligibles to operating departments; and administration of the County Drug & Alcohol and Service Awards programs.
• On December 10th the Annual Employee Recognition Awards ceremony was held for the 8th year. The Employee Recognition Award Program is designed to motivate, recognize, and reward exemplary performance that supports the County’s overall organizational goals. The 2014 winners included employees working for the Sheriff’s Department, Human Services, District Attorney, Farm and Home, and General Services departments. The Director of Personnel is a standing member of the Employee Recognition Awards Committee which is the group that is tasked with developing criteria for awards, formulating the process, recruiting and screening members of the Recognition Review Committee, vetting nominees for Employee Recognition Awards, and organizing the event. Other committee members include a representative from the County Counsel which for the past 8 years has been Margo Raison, a member of the County Administrative Office, and other volunteers from the Strategic Workforce Planning Taskforce. Human Services and General Services has always made up this Strategic Workforce Planning Taskforce representation. The award ceremony held on December 10th should be able to be viewed on the County’s public website very soon.
